Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF

June 2025

IMPORTANT RISK WARNINGS / FUND INFORMATION FOR HONG KONG INVESTORS

- With effect from 5 March 2018, Hang Seng H-Share Index ETF is renamed as Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF.
- Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF (the "HSCEI ETF") is an index-tracking fund which aims to match, before expenses, as closely as practicable the performance of the Hang Seng China Enterprises Index (the "Index"). The HSCEI ETF invests primarily in the constituent stocks of the Index.
- The HSCEI ETF is different from a typical unit trust as it is listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and like other listed stocks, carry similar risks such as liquidity risk and risk of trading suspension. The market price per Unit could be significantly higher or lower than its Net Asset Value per Unit due to market demand and supply, liquidity and scale of trading spread in the secondary market and will fluctuate during the trading day.
- The HSCEI ETF is subject to tracking error risk, passive investment risk, risk of concentration of investments in a single market/several constituent stocks of the Index and risks associated with investments in mainland China (an emerging market).
- The HSCEI ETF is also subject to dual counter risk, RMB currency and conversion risks, reliance on market maker risk and reliance on the same group risk.
- The Manager may, at its discretion, pay dividend out of capital. The Manager may also, at its discretion, pay dividend out of gross income while all or part of the fees and expenses of the HSCEI ETF are charged to/paid out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the HSCEI ETF and therefore, the HSCEI ETF may effectively pay dividend out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF or effectively out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF may result in an immediate reduction of the Net Asset Value per Unit of the HSCEI ETF.
- Investment involves risks and investors may lose substantial part of their investment in the HSCEI ETF.
- Investors should not only base on this material alone to make investment decisions, but should read the HSCEI ETF's offering documents (including the full text of the risk factors stated therein) in detail.

Investment Objective

The HSCEI ETF is an index-tracking fund which aims to match, before expenses, as closely as practicable the performance of the Hang Seng China Enterprises Index (the "Index").

Performance Chart

HSCEI ETF: NAV to NAV basis, total return with dividend (if any) reinvested. (Source: NAV is provided by HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Asia) Limited. The performance information of the HSCEI ETF is provided by the Manager.) Please note that the Units of the HSCEI ETF currently available are income units only. The performance information presented is calculated based on the assumption that there were no distributions to Unitholders, and is for reference only. To achieve comparability among funds' performance presentations in the market for investors, the Manager is to change the methodology used to calculate portfolio and composite returns with effective from 1 September 2022 onward. The change is the total return with dividend reinvested at ex-dividend date instead of payment date. Performance data published prior to 1 September 2022 is incomparable with the performance calculated by the new calculation methodology.

Index: Hang Seng China Enterprise Index, total return with dividend reinvested, net of PRC withholding tax. Source: Hang Seng Indexes Company Limited.

The performance figures show by how much the Fund increased or decreased in value during the period being shown. Performance data has been calculated in HKD including ongoing charges and excluding your trading costs on SEHK.

Distribution Information

	Intended Frequency	Record Date	Amount / Share
HKD Counter	Semi-annually (if any)	30 Jun 2025	HKD 1.3
RMB Counter	Semi-annually (if any)	30 Jun 2025	HKD 1.3

With effect from 29 May 2017, the Manager intends to make declaration of distribution in June and September (instead of June and November) of each year. A positive distribution yield does not imply a positive return.

Dividend Policy: Semi-annual cash dividends (if any) at the discretion of the Manager, which are expected to be in respect of the first half and the second half of each calendar year respectively. The Manager currently intends to make declaration of dividend in June and September of each year. Each Unitholder will receive dividends in HKD only (whether holding HKD traded Units or RMB traded Units). There is no guarantee of regular distribution of dividends and if dividend is paid the amount being distributed. The Manager may, at its discretion, pay dividend out of capital. The Manager may also, at its discretion, pay dividend out of gross income while all or part of the fees and expenses of the HSCEI ETF are charged to/paid out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the HSCEI ETF and therefore, the HSCEI ETF may effectively pay dividend out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions of dividends involving payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital may result in an immediate reduction of the Net Asset Value per Unit.
